Dear Mr. Sabri ;—

Referring to your message to our selevs dated 05.01.1999 and our teleconv in the same day where i replied to you verbally not to effect payment subject to the discrepancies, where you agreed.

Today i have received a telephone call from your self asking me to reply on your mentioned message.

So, i have to make my self very clear to you that under no any circumstances payment should take place without my personal written instructions.

Meanwhile we still negotiate with the exporters and with our insurance co. to find out, what has happened to the cargo which sailed from port said on the 23rd December 1998 and never arrived to the destination.

once we settle the issue we will keep you informed.
